

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT
For Immediate Release: May 16, 2017

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THE EDMONTON INTERNATIONAL STREET PERFORMERS FESTIVAL

Volunteer for the 33rd Annual Edmonton International Street Performers Festival, running July 7 - 16, 2017 in Sir Winston Churchill Square. Make friends, have fun, win prizes and gain access to a post-festival party in exchange for a minimum of 20 volunteer hours!

For ten days, StreetFest will transform Edmonton's Downtown into a roving stage for a cast of amazing street artists from across Canada and around the globe. Expect the unexpected and some fun times along the way with everything from acrobats to face painters, fire-breathers to hip hop dancers and jugglers to magicians. It's the ultimate play zone for everyone from the young to the young-at-heart.

Volunteer teams looking for recruits include Environment/Site, Raffles, Transportation, "Kids' World," Information, Audience Services, and the "Be Your Own Busker" area. Volunteers aged 14 to 114 and all walks of life are invited to apply. Please note that volunteer hours can be used to fulfill the required junior high and high school IB community service hours, and for high school credits.

Join a community over 30 years in the making! For more information and to apply, visit www.edmontonstreetfest.com, email volunteer@edmontonstreetfest.com, or call Volunteer Coordinator Liz Allison-Jorde at 780-425-5162.

-30-

Media contact:

Kate Hamblin, Bottom Line Productions Inc.
kate@bottomlinepro.com | 780.257.6931