

StreetFest is in the Community.
YOUR Community.

Edmonton StreetFest, partnered with the Edmonton Arts Council for the full month of September and has been visiting communities within the City for the Festival in a Box pop up parades. So far we have visited the Ambleside, Duggan, Kilkenny, Laurier Heights, McLeod and Ritchie neighborhoods. On Saturday, October 10 we will be visiting a community in Millwoods, visit Edmonton StreetFest's social media pages for upcoming information about this parade.

If you would like a parade or performance from our artists in your neighborhood contact producer@edmontonstreetfest.com.

The Festival dates may be over but the FUN IN YOUR HOUSE can continue!

The weather may be getting cooler outside, but Edmonton StreetFest is bringing the fun to your house. Visit www.edmontonstreetfest.com to participate in workshops with some of your favorite street performers. These workshops include hula hoop lessons with Amanda Panda, balloon making with Phileas Flash, juggling with Gustavo, puppets with Lee Zimmerman, and dancing with Common People Dance Project. The fun never has to end with The Edmonton International Street Performers Festival!

Send us photos of how you're playing at home to info@edmontonstreetfest.com.
